S. J. R. No. 16

A JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing a constitutional amendment to permit the voters of Harris County to abolish the office of county surveyor in that county.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Article XVI, Section 44, Subsection (e), of the Texas Constitution is amended to read as follows:

(e) The office of County Surveyor in the counties of Harris, Denton, Randall, Collin, Dallas, El Paso, and Henderson is abolished upon the approval of the abolition by a majority of the qualified voters of the respective county voting on the question at an election that the Commissioners Court of the county may call. If the election is called, the Commissioners Court shall order the ballot at the election to be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "Abolishing the office of county surveyor." Each qualified voter of the county is entitled to vote in the election. If the office of County Surveyor is abolished under this subsection, the maps, field notes, and other records in the custody of the County Surveyor are transferred to the County Clerk of the county. After abolition, the Commissioners Court may employ or contract with a qualified person to perform any of the functions that would have been performed by the County Surveyor if the office had not been abolished.

SECTION 2. The Texas Constitution is amended by adding the following provision:

TEMPORARY PROVISION. The constitutional amendment proposed

1 by the 71st Legislature, Regular Session, 1989, permitting the 2 voters of Harris County to abolish the office of county surveyor in 3 that county takes effect January 1, 1990. This provision expires
4 when executed.

5 SECTION 3. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the
6 voters at an election to be held on November 7, 1989. The ballot
7 shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the 8 proposition: "The constitutional amendment to permit the voters of 9 Harris County to abolish the office of county surveyor in that 10 county."

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing a constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county surveyor in Harris County.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Article XVI, Section 44, of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding Subsection (h) to read as follows:

(h) The office of County Surveyor in Harris County is abolished if at the statewide election at which the addition to the Constitution of this subsection is submitted to the voters, a majority of the voters of Harris County voting on the question at that election favor the addition of this subsection. If the office of County Surveyor in Harris County is abolished, the powers, duties, and functions of the office are transferred to the county officer or employee designated by the Commissioners Court, and the Commissioners Court may from time to time change its designation as it considers appropriate. The office of County Surveyor in Harris County is abolished on January 1, 1990, if the conditions of this subsection are met. If that office in Harris County is not abolished, this subsection expires on January 1, 1990.

SECTION 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the voters at an election to be held on November 7, 1989. The ballot shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county surveyor in Harris County."

In response to your request for a Fiscal Note on Senate Joint Resolution No. 16 (proposing a constitutional amendment to permit the voters of Harris County to abolish the office of county surveyor in that county) this office has determined the following:

The resolution would make no appropriation but could provide the legal basis for an appropriation of funds to implement the provisions of the bill.

The resolution proposes a constitutional amendment which, if adopted, would allow the voters of Harris County to abolish the office of county surveyor. The proposed amendment would be submitted to the voters on November 7, 1989.

The cost of publication of the resolution to the State is estimated to be $60,000.

The fiscal implications to Harris County cannot be determined.

S.J.R. 16
(C.S.S.J.R. 16)

BACKGROUND

Currently, the Office of County Surveyor performs no service to Cass, Ector, Harris and Webb counties and receives no remuneration from the counties. However, the office is constitutional and in order to abolish it the Texas Constitution must be amended.

PURPOSE

C.S.S.J.R. 16 would amend the Texas constitution to allow for the abolishment of the Office of County Surveyor in Cass, Webb, Ector and Harris Counties on January 1, 1990 if approved by a majority of the voters in those counties.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

It is the opinion of this committee that C.S.S.J.R. 16 would delegate no new rulemaking authority to any state officer, institution, department, or agency.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1. Amends Article XVI, Section 44, Texas Constitution by adding Subsection (f). (f) Provides that the Office of County Surveyor in Cass, Ector, Harris and Webb counties are abolished if at a statewide election a majority of voters in those counties vote in favor of the proposal. The powers and duties of the County Surveyor would be transferred to an office or employee designated by the commissioners court.

SECTION 2. Provides for an election on November 7, 1989 for voting for or against the proposition.

COMPARISON OF ORIGINAL TO SUBSTITUTE

The substitute would allow Cass, Ector, and Webb counties to abolish the Office of County Surveyor.

SUMMARY OF COMMITTEE ACTION

H.J.R. 55 and H.J.R. 58 were considered in a public hearing on March 14, 1989. There was no testimony for or against the joint resolutions. The resolutions were referred to the Subcommittee on the Abolition of County Surveyor. H.J.R. 64 was considered in a public hearing on April 4, 1989. No one testified for or against the resolution. H.J.R. 64 was referred to the Subcommittee on the Abolition of County Surveyor. S.J.R. 16, the companion bill for H.J.R. 64, was referred to the same subcommittee on April 25, 1989. The subcommittee considered the joint resolutions on May 1, 1989. Representative Jones offered a substitute for S.J.R. 16 which incorporated H.J.R. 55 and H.J.R. 58. The motion to report S.J.R. 16, as substituted, back to the full committee prevailed. The full committee considered the subcommittee's report on May 2, 1989. The motion to report S.J.R. 16, as substituted, favorably to the House prevailed with a vote of 8 Ayes, 0 Nays, 0 PNV and 3 Absent.
